

Commercial Lighting Breakout Session

June 11, 2008 3:30-5:00PM

Kate Baldacci, CEE

Carol Jones, PNNL

Working Together, Advancing Efficiency

Objectives

- To update the committee on current CEE commercial lighting efforts
- To understand energy-saving opportunities in DOE's Commercial Lighting Solutions
- To address considerations for CEE member involvement and discuss implications for commercial programs

Agenda

- Welcome, Announcements, Introduction (10 min)
- Presentation – Potential Energy Savings Opportunities in the DOE's Commercial Lighting Solutions (30 min)
- Q/A (10 min)
- Discussion (30 min)
- Wrap Up (10 min)

Announcements

- NEMA Premium – 5 manufacturers currently enrolled
Dimmable Ballasts
- SSL – Subcommittee
ENERGY STAR SSL Call- June 19th Noon Eastern
- DOE SSL Efforts
Next Generation Luminaires (www.ngldc.org)
“L” Prize Competition (www.lightingprize.org)
SSL Market Intro Workshop (July 9-11th Portland, OR)

Introduction

- Trend towards “systems approach”
- Commercial Lighting Solutions
 - Developed by DOE (lighting designers/ end users)
 - 30% below ASHRAE/IESNA 90.1 -2004

Discussion

- Poll
- How do members plan to use Commercial Lighting Solutions in programs?
- What program components would enable the use of CLS?